A CALL TO REMEMBER

Carol Fitzpatrick

Publication date: October 2008

We are here to change the course of human history. We are here to unite as a race of beings. We come from far distant galaxies of light; from truth, compassion, unconditional love, joy, peace, patience, perseverance. Many of us have been waiting a very long time to bring these qualities, these truths, back together as one.

We are all here together now. We are here to shift the human consciousness of the planet, our earth home. The world has gone mad with greed, violence and petty thievery of the heart. We are here to right the wrong, to shift the course away from violence and death, unhappiness and shallow rewards. We are here to instill hope, to reinstate dharma (right action) into our human family. We have come here to make a choice, a different choice for humanity. What will you choose?

A CALL TO REMEMBER takes us through the deeper levels of soul learning, then shifts our focus to the world as it stands right now. But Carol Fitzpatrick doesn't stop there. She takes us on a journey, a personal journey toward oneness consciousness. Through her own eyes, she shows the way out of the chaos into the light. As she does so, she reminds us of who we truly are. By finding our joy, we become a part of the solution. It seems simple and it is, but not necessarily easy. Through real life examples of people who are making that quantum leap in their own lives, she tells the story in such a way that it's not hard to get. A Call to Remember reminds us that by taking the steps to transform our own lives we are changing the course of human history.

A Call to Remember is for everyone who wants to live an authentic life and manifest in every moment. Carol Fitzpatrick has laid it out for us step-by-step with a simple and inspirational message. Her words remind us of the connections we sensed in our hearts. Martha Randolph Carr, author of A Place to Call Home
