SHORT:

Carol Lynn Fitzpatrick is a visionary, metaphysical author and spiritual activist. Her platform of living in the flow of joy has evolved from a grassroots wake-up call into an international movement.

LONGER:

Fitzpatrick is a visionary, author and advocate for a new form of global activism. Her platform of teaching new paradigm leaders how to live in the flow of joy has evolved from a grassroots wake-up call into an international movement. She is the founder Living the Miracle: A Center for New Paradigm Leadership and Global Network, and the author of two books, Fear Not My Child and A Call to Remember: Follow Your Heart, Change the World.

The foundation of her work began in 2001, when Fitzpatrick formed a partnership with husband Mark Torgeson. She combined her prophetic work with his passion for music and their mutual exploration of vibration to transform and heal.

Today, her prophetic teachings and transformational practices are rooted in the practical application of modern-day life, and have taken form as spiritual mentoring, transpersonal healing, and group activations. Fitzpatrick teaches others how to follow the energy patterns of their lives, and how to change absolutely anything about their past, present or future by aligning with one's heart's desire. The energetic and sound healing is in an integral part of this practice.

The precursor for her work began in 1989, when she began unraveling the mysteries of a transformation that took her deep into the mystical realms of the Divine. In 2001, she authored her first book, Fear Not My Child. Emerging from the Spiral of Fear. By late 2003, she began speaking and doing workshops. In late 2006, she wrote a second book based on her prophetic work with individuals: A Call to Remember. Follow Your Heart, Change the World was published in Oct. 2008. She is also the author of a monthly e-communicative' called Light Streamings, and has written articles on the subject of spiritual transformation.

Carol resides in Fredericksburg, Virginia, and is the mother of two grown children.
